

Are you looking to complete Height Safety training?

The flow chart on the right will guide you in selecting the correct training required.

Height Safety Advanced

This training is recommended for those in industry where working at height requires more advanced knowledge to work safely. There is little or no edge protection. The training is suitable for those in industry where rescue of a worker maybe required if emergency services are not readily available or suitable equipment to carry out a rescue such as a Mobile Elevated Work Platform is unavailable. This course incorporates Rescue from Height using height rescue equipment and rescue techniques.

Height Safety Introduction

This training is recommended as an introduction for those in industry that are working at height with very little or no edge protection and are not using a Mobile Elevated Work Platform, scaffolding or platforms.

Harness Safety

This training is recommended for those in industry working with Mobile Elevated Work Platforms, Platforms/Ladders, scaffolding where edge protection is provided. Examples being Mobile Elevated Work Platform/Cages and Scaffolding where the correct use of a harness is required.